

Daytona-Beach News-Journal Local Section 2/22/17

▲ HIDE CAPTION

The League of Women Voters Education Action Team recently spent a morning at the Ivy Hawn Charter School for the Performing Arts in Lake Helen. League members took a tour of classrooms where students were actively involved in both academic classes and a full array of performing arts classes. The action committee is studying the characteristics that differentiate successful charters such as Ivy Hawn from those that are not performing at acceptable levels. Pictured, from left, Pat Drago LWV; Judy Tabasco, educational consultant; Nicki Junkins, LWV; Pat Cosby, LWV; Dawn Mericle, assistant Principal; Kelly Conway, principal; Carol Kelley, grants specialist and former principal; Monique Fischer, LWV; Prema Nayar, LWV; Suzi Peace, LWV; Cass Holladay, LWV. [Photo provided]